

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

1

Since the beginning of time, God spoke to His people through prophets such as Abraham, Moses, and Samuel. But Israel wanted a to have a king, like the other nations. God wasn't happy about their decision, but directed Samuel to select Saul to be Israel's king.

Saul was humble at first, but it wasn't long before pride got in his way. Saul made bad choices and didn't follow God's commands. So God chose someone else to take the throne—'a man after His own heart.' He chose David (1 Samuel 13:14).

As you Journey Through the Bible this month, I hope you will be encouraged not to make the mistakes Saul made. Don't let anything to lead you away from following God. Stay close to Him, and let your example lead others in the same way.

THINK ABOUT THIS:

The instrument David played was a harp and is thought to be one of the oldest instruments in the world. The word 'harp' comes from Anglo-Saxon words meaning 'to pluck'.
